

Statement from Thomas Cloutier, Chief Marketing Officer, Arete Living of Wilsonville, OR

Avamere at Lexington, an independent and assisted living community, has announced their permanent closure, effective June 1, 2022. Avamere Communities oversees the management of the building and was notified by ownership of the closure as Chevalier Capital sold the property. The community will be closed effectively July 31, 2022.

Avamere at Lexington was proactive in assisting employees and residents through this transition, assisting them in finding new employment and homes. Maria Barajas, Executive Director of Avamere at Lexington, was instrumental in ensuring a smooth transition.

“We sincerely thank our employees for their dedication to our residents,” stated Sarah Silva, President of Avamere Communities. “Your work directly impacts lives, and I extend my heartfelt thanks for your selfless service. To our residents, thank you for choosing Avamere as your home. Our team has loved getting to know you and serving you.”

Avamere’s mission is to enhance the life of every person they serve, and the team will continue to strive for this goal as they assist their entire community through this change.
